This recently renovated mid terrace property enjoys an excellent location within the historic village of Edenderry. The accommodation is bright and deceptively spacious and comprises of an open plan lounge, modern kitchen with range of built in appliances, white bathroom suite and two good sized bedrooms. In addition, the property benefits from gas boiler and majority double glazed. The garden to the front and the rear has been

Despite its tranquil, semi-rural location, this fine home is conveniently located just off the Outer Ring and is therefore within easy reach of the city centre and other parts of Belfast and the rest of the province.
